worshipping together*

April 2022

Dear Friends,

During the Alpha Course which we run here in Lytham, we learn that Jesus died for us, indeed that he would have died just for one of us. It is an incredible thought.

It echoes of Abraham's conversation with God in Genesis 18:23-33. God tells Abraham that he will destroy the city of Sodom unless he finds fifty righteous men. Abraham asks if there are forty righteous men will God relent and he agrees. The conversation continues until Abraham asks if God will save the city if there are ten righteous men and God agrees to save Sodom for just ten righteous people.

This story in Genesis resonates with the idea that God will protect us individually. This comes to reality when, through Jesus, he saves each of us. One righteous man has been found on earth and God saves those who recognise Him, the Saviour of the World.

Jesus, by giving his perfect life, makes us all accepted by God and secure in his Kingdom in this world and the next.

The crucifixion is a powerful, loving moment. Jesus gives his life to forgive our sins and failures, but it is the Resurrection that seals the deal. One righteous man saves us and the resurrection proves it.

May we pause to recognise

- what God this Holy Week,
- truly revel in celebrating the Resurrection
- and live as those saved and protected by this one righteous man.

Alleluia Christ is Risen

He is Risen indeed Alleluia

Yours in Christ,

Doug Horley

The nationally known children's evangelist Doug Horley (Dougie Dug Dug) visited Lytham in recently. The visit was arranged by 'The Churches in Lytham' supported by the 'Lytham Schools Foundation'.

Doug and his colleague led collective worship on a curriculum linked science theme at St Peters, Hall Park and Lytham CofE primary schools.

The children (and the staff) really enjoyed his presentations and indeed one school has already emailed him to ask him to come back. He made quite an impact!

We are exploring a second invitation and for the visit to include a full performance from Doug and his team which we can invite everyone to.

The Bishop of Blackburn

The Rt Revd Julian Henderson, the Bishop of Blackburn, has announced his retirement. After close to 9 years with us he will move in the summer and settle in the south of England.

The Rt Revd Philip North, Bishop of Burnley, will take the lead in the Diocese until the next Bishop of Blackburn comes into post.

There will be a full recognition of his ministry in the coming months when we can show our appreciation for his ministry in our diocese.

JC Lytham

We understand that the Pastoral Scheme to unite our churches is now in its final stages with the Church Commissioners and the Bishop of Blackburn

The PCC have been working hard in preparation for this and there will be a period of overlap and transition.

We are planning to combine celebrating the new parish with a service, procession and lunch on Pentecost Sunday, June 5th which also marks the Queens Platinum Jubilee. Look out for more details.

Bible Study

Our final 'Back to Basics - not so much a Bible Study as a study of the Bible', led by Revd Colin Crumpton is looking at the Passion according to John.

These monthly studies through the winter have been challenging, thought provoking and inspiring and we are so grateful to Colin for his teaching.

We meet on Monday 4th April at 7.00pm at Fosbrooke House, 8 Clifton Drive, FY8 5RQ, all welcome

Mothers' Union

Our March Meeting was well attended by twenty-five members. We very much enjoyed the talk and slide show on African Fabrics by Mrs. Judy Judkins who had made a wonderful collection whilst living out there.

The next meeting is on Thursday 14th April at 2.30 pm in church, when we welcome once again, Mrs Pat Ascroft whose talk is entitled Irish Horse Power.

Also, at this meeting we welcome 14 new members who will be enrolled by the Vicar, Rev. N. Wells. We hope as many members will be able to attend to give them a very warm welcome.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

The Common Worship Calendar commemorates Dietrich Bonhoeffer on 9 April, providing 'Lutheran Pastor, Martyr, 1945' as additional information. This is day when he was hanged by the Nazis at Flossenbürg concentration camp, accused of association with the 20 July Plot on Hitler's life. It is recorded that, as he was led away, he said to a fellow-prisoner, 'This is the end — for me the beginning of life'.

Bonhoeffer was born in 1906, and was ordained into the Lutheran church in November 1931. He was a determined opponent of the Nazis from the time of the election campaign of 1933, which led to Hitler becoming Chancellor. He fought hard against Hitler's euthanasia programme and the persecution and genocide of the Jews, and was one of the notable church leaders who resisted Hitler's attempt to create a Nazified German Protestant Church. This involved the dismissal of pastors and other officials who were of Jewish descent, and even the removal of the Old Testament from the Bible. The Christian opposition issued various declarations against this, asserting the Bible's integrity, God's fidelity to the Jews as his chosen people, and the power of baptism, regardless of racial or ethnic descent. One of the earliest of these declarations was the Bethel Confession of 1933, which Bonhoeffer played a leading part in drafting. But it was then watered down, and Bonhoeffer refused to sign it. He felt unable to accept a parish post in Berlin offered to him that autumn, and instead decided to withdraw by taking a two-year post as pastor of two German-speaking Protestant churches in London. Further oppositional declarations were issued in Germany, most notably the Barmen Declaration in 1934, and so, when Bonhoeffer's appointment in London ended, he returned to Germany and became a leading figure in what had by then evolved into being the Confessing Church, the name given to those who resisted the Nazi distortion.

Bonhoeffer had started his ecclesiastical career as a high-flying academic, beginning with studies in the renowned theological faculty in Tübingen. He went on to gain a doctorate in Berlin, followed by further postgraduate work and a teaching fellowship at the Union Theological Seminary in New York. Now, in support of the Confessing Church, he travelled around eastern Germany running underground seminaries. But he was pursued by the Nazis, who closed successive seminaries and banned him from Berlin. In February 1938 Bonhoeffer made initial contact with the members of the German Resistance when his brother-in-law, Hans von Dohnányi (father of the celebrated musical conductor) introduced him to a group in Military Intelligence who were seeking Hitler's overthrow. In June 1939, however, Bonhoeffer accepted an invitation to return to the Union Theological Seminary in New York — a move he instantly regretted because of what was happening in Germany, and so he returned home only two weeks later. He had to report regularly to the police and was forbidden to publish anything or speak in public, but under the pretext of working for Military Intelligence, he travelled extensively, using his ecumenical connections abroad to make high-level contact with the Allies. With Dohnány he was also involved in helping German Jews escape to Switzerland. Bonhoeffer and Dohnány were both arrested on 5 April 1943.

Bonhoeffer's practical actions were underpinned by his publications, most notably The Cost of Discipleship (on the Sermon on the Mount), Ethics (unfinished when he was arrested in 1943), and — perhaps best-known of all — his Letters and Papers from Prison, which were published after his death.
