LYTHAM

November
2023

Dear Friends,

On Saturday October 7th members of our PCC, LLMs and ALMs gathered at Whalley Abbey to spend a day together thinking and reflecting on our parish. Now we are settled into '2 Homes 1 Family' we began to think of our strengths and weaknesses as a parish and discern what our priorities should be over the next twelve months, three years and five years.

The image the leader of the day, the Revd Fleur Green, gave us was to view our parish as a tree, prompting questions:

- how deep are our roots;
- are we healthy, do we bear good fruit;
- are we good for our environment;
- does anything require pruning;
- are we producing new saplings.

Overall it was thought we were doing OK in all these areas. Our main challenges concern growth, impacting our environment and producing new saplings whilst our greatest strengths are that we have deep roots and bear some good fruit.

We further reflected on where the gaps are in our mission as a parish and what were the headline issues we needed to put energy into.

The PCC is now beginning to discuss the issues and ideas raised to prioritise where we need to particularly focus and they have already resolved to include a summary of each PCC meeting in the Magazine so everyone is more aware of what is happening and what is being discussed and considered.

If you have any thoughts which may assist the PCC discussions and future planning please do speak to one of the members.

And one thing Fleur underlined was that this exercise is not about creating jobs the clergy have to add to our to do list, but that they are areas everyone should be involved in progressing.

Yours in Christ,

Sermon Series – Worship for Everyone

Starting on Sunday 29th October and for the next month we will be following the theme of 'Worship for Everyone' in our sermons. We will be considering what the bible has to say to us about the worship offered by the whole church family.

5Mike Chesterton, from Home for Good, an agency seeking 'to ensure that every child and young person has the home they need', will be our guest preacher at our Parish Communion at St John on 5th November which links to our sermon series.

Discipleship Group

Our Discipleship Group is following the “Shining Like Stars” course this month, it is a follow on from “A New Community” which the members have been studying before the summer break.

Shining Like Stars is a study which helps Christians understand how God intends us to live in this world.

It focusses on what it means to live as effective Christian disciples in the midst of the challenges of daily life, and its aim is to equip people to live with compassion and integrity as Christians in the community and in the workplace.

All are welcome to join the course whether or not you were part of the previous group.

The group meets at 7pm on Tuesday evenings at 111 Shepherd Road.

Please email jacquibrisco1@gmail.com or speak to a member of the clergy team for more information.

Jacqui Briscoe - Licensed Lay Minister (LLM)

Nick was pleased to welcome Jacqui to the Ministry Team back in May when she was relicensed as an LLM to our Parish. She was first licensed as a Reader, as they were known then, in 2006 in Middlewich. Jacqui held many volunteer roles whilst in the Chester Diocese including Chaplaincy supporting the farming community, in nursing homes and a sheltered housing complex. She took many funerals over that period; and also led Alpha Courses for 14 years leading and supporting many people to come to Christ.

Jacqui was sent to Sunday School as a youngster, not particularly engaging with the Christian message but loved the singing and so rather than feeling forced to attend, quite enjoyed it. There was a big gap between Sunday School and when eventually Jacqui gave her life to Jesus at the age of 30 in the local Pentecostal Church, where she worshiped for 10 years and thought that was going to be her church forever. Sadly, the Pastor moved on and without a leader the church declined, which meant Jacqui and Rob, her husband, moved to the Anglican Church in Hartford. At St Johns there was an active Men's Fellowship which Rob got involved in and they were greatly encouraged and felt at home there.

Their move to Lytham sort of just happened. There was no great plan to move to the area. They had lived in their previous home for over 38 years, but things were changing in their area and so two years ago, they put their house up for sale. A friend asked where they were moving to, to which they replied, 'we don't know'. The friend mentioned that he had some friends who had just moved to Lytham and they loved it. Jacqui and Rob came to visit and fell in love with the area. They started looking for a house, and where they are now in Shepherd Road just felt so right. They really believed God was leading them in their decision to move here.

They started attending St Cuthberts 18 months ago; Jacqui led our Bible Study on Philippians and is now leading our Discipleship Course. She is a great asset to the Team and we look forward to her sharing her gifts, knowledge and experience with us all. Jacqui loves to chat and will talk to anyone and is very welcoming to anyone new who happens to come through our church doors.

Its great to have you on board Jacqui and Rob. Thank you for coming to Lytham.

Confirmation

Confirmation is a commitment Christians make to be disciples of Christ closely associated with Baptism. Most people are Baptised as a baby or young child and their parents and godparents make promises on their behalf. Confirmation is a completion of this, for many it is an opportunity to publicly profess their faith and receive the Laying on of Hands by a Bishop.

The clergy are currently working with year 5 at our school this term and inviting the pupils to come forward to be Confirmed. If any others aged 9 to 99 are also interested in being Confirmed please speak to Emma or Nick.

Our Confirmation Service this year is on Sunday 3rd December at 10:15am at St John's with Bishop Jill.

Revd Peter Law-Jones

For the past couple years, since moving back to St Annes in his retirement, Peter has been part of our ministry team here at JC Lytham. However, he has now decided to stand back from this role. We have appreciated his support as he has presided at Communion services and conducted funerals.

Peter has been an asset to our ministry team and we are sorry to say goodbye to him. We are though very thankful for his recent ministry amongst us and hope he stays in touch.

Christmas Through The Keyhole

A new and exciting venture is coming to JC Lytham! On 7-9th December, we will be holding a Christmas trail in St John's Church. Christmas Through the Keyhole is a multi-sensory trail for all ages that leads groups of children and adults on a journey around the church, through 'rooms' of characters from the nativity story, each time looking through the keyhole to ask, "Who would live in a place like this?"

Participants will visit Mary's house, the Shepherds' field, the Wise Men's tent, and Joseph's workshop, before setting out on a journey to find the baby Jesus.

On Thursday 7th and Friday 8th December, groups from Lytham C of E and Hall Park (with a drop-in from Bishop Philip) will join us during the day to embark on their journey.

On Saturday 9th December, the trail will be open for anyone in the community to come and join in. The regular coffee morning will look a little different that day. There will still be refreshments available, but there will also be the opportunity to join in with the trail, to engage in Christmas themed crafts, and to see how we as a church are engaging with the children and families of Lytham. Please do come along and support it.

Before then, WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We need to furnish these rooms to make them look as authentic as possible. At the back of both churches there are photographs of these spaces as they have been set up in other churches and a list of possible items that we need to source to furnish them. Look at the pictures, and scan the list, and have a look around your homes to see if there is anything you can loan us to make the spaces sing! We will especially be looking for earthenware, fabrics, and rustic tools.

We also need VOLUNTEERS!

The trail culminates with a live action scene. Could you be Mary? Joseph? A Shepherd? A Wise Man? An innkeeper? There are very few lines to remember, and a full script will be provided.

Can you volunteer your time to be a host – welcoming school groups and making refreshments?

Can you help with set up and take down?

This is a Parish event and all of us are needed to make it a resounding success and an event that will be remembered by the children and the community for years to come.

Any offers of help please contact Emma at emma@jclytham.church or pop your name and contact number on a piece of paper to give to Emma or Nick when you see them.

Hello from everyone at Lytham Church of England Primary School!

I hope you all had a peaceful, enjoyable and relaxing summer. Back in July, we said an emotional goodbye to our Y6 children who moved on to their new high schools. We're going to miss these amazing children but we know that they are going to make a positive impact in their new schools. As our older children have moved on, we have gained a lot of new faces at Lytham. The four year olds in our new Reception Class have settled in extremely well as have our three year olds in our Nursery class. Mrs Ready is settling into her role as SENCo and Miss Rothney and Miss Phillips are enjoying getting to know their new children in Y4 and Y5.

The children have come back to school with their batteries fully recharged and are working their socks off! The autumn term is always a busy time with lots of exciting events. We all thoroughly enjoyed the Harvest Service which was partly led by our Y6 children and we were overwhelmed by the generosity of our families with the donations for charity. We enjoyed taking part in Education Sunday too.

Reading continues to be a priority in school and there was great excitement when the Library Bus arrived and children could have a turn on the bus to choose new books for our library. We are currently sorting out our reading books to ensure that they are all of the highest quality for the children. It's a big job but our focus is on fostering a love of reading for pleasure so we're all rolling up our sleeves and getting busy sorting and cataloguing our books.

Our Y6 children took part in Bikeability training in September and it was lovely to celebrate with them as they were commended for taking part in the training so enthusiastically! Speaking of celebrations, did I mention that we were awarded a Gold Award at the Lytham in Bloom Presentation Evening for our School Gardens.....

We have welcomed lots of families to our open days but we always love the opportunity to show off our school so please do spread the word if you know of anyone whose child will be starting school in September 2024.

The vision we have for our children is for them to grow to be Disciples of Jesus and as such our Christian Values permeate all that we do.

I hope you've enjoyed reading about the times we share at Lytham Church of England School; we remain grateful that so many people pray so faithfully for our school community.

Love, prayers & best wishes,

Amanda Wooldridge

Remembrance Sunday

Sunday November 12th is Remembrance Sunday this year and as in recent years we will be holding our Communion Service at 9am in both churches. This enables us to join with rest of the Lytham community for an Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial in the Market Square for 10:45am.

There will also be an Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial outside the Church Hall at 10:55am on Saturday 11th November.

RNLI Service

This years RNLI service will be at St Cuthbert's on Sunday 10th December at 10:15am. This will be a joint service and there will be more details in the December Magazine.

Parish Giving Scheme

Over the summer we concentrated on how the members of our parish give of their money and time. Following magazine articles, sermon themes and letters we are beginning to see a response, though we have to report it has been slower than we had hoped.

There have been less than 30 pledges but the average pledge is £55 per month for which we wish to say thank you. Whilst feeling the response is at one level disappointing, at another it is really encouraging.

As our new Parish bank account is open and working the individual bank accounts for St John the Divine at HSBC, and St Cutherts at Barclays and Virgin Money, will be closing in the near future. Our Planned Giving Officers will be writing to those who have been giving to the individual bank accounts asking them to join the Parish Giving Scheme.

May we continue to encourage anyone who has not responded yet to think seriously about giving regularly to our parish which after all is a way of saying thank you to God for His generosity to us.

If you follow this QR code with your smartphone or tablet it will explain how the Parish Giving Scheme works and help you to set up regular gifts or even make a one off donation.

Message from the Bishop of Balckburn

Diocesan Synod heard a powerful Presidential Address from Bishop Philip last weekend, with the theme of reconciliation, in which he dared us all to pray for five years of consecutive growth as a Diocese.

Before a busy Synod agenda got under way, Bishop Philip said: "We are part of a Diocese that is showing a level of missional and strategic coherence that is likely soon to attract tens of millions of pounds of investment from the national church.

"We have a Parish renewal programme that is turning round ministries and bringing people to faith. We have a team of clergy and lay leaders who almost all share a desire to grow their congregations, not because they want to keep an institution alive but because their own faith in Jesus means that genuinely long for others to have the same and we have remarkable ministry in our schools and chaplaincies.

He continued: "Our greatest shared fear must surely be that our missional coherence is undermined by what is happening in the church nationally.

"So, in the midst of all that, let's hold up the cross. Let us commit ourselves anew to holding up the cross as we proclaim the Gospel, serve the poor, live lives of self-giving love and offer the world the sacraments of the Church.

Warming to his theme, Bishop Philip added: "This is the dare. What if we did this: The latest data is that between 2021 and 2022 the regularly weekly attendance in churches across the Diocese grew, even though very few of you were as yet including new local congregations in the data. That growth came from churches of every tradition.

"What if we committed ourselves to praying for five years of consecutive growth as a Diocese?"

"Bishop Jill has coined the phrase, 'mutual missioning'; that's the desire to work in harmony for the sake of the mission of the Church.

"In the midst of national storms, may we dare to go on ministering and declaring the cross together in the Spirit's power for the benefit of the people of Lancashire."

The Cenotaph

November is the month when we particularly remember the dead of both world wars and later conflicts. Remembrance Day is 11 November because it was at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month that the guns fell silent and all fighting ceased at the end of World War I — the Great War, as it was known in the years before World War II. Strictly speaking, 11 November 1918 was an Armistice: legally, the end of the war did not come until 1919 with the Treaty of Versailles. So, some memorials give the dates of the war as 1914-19, although it is more usual simply to count the years of fighting, 1914-18.

There was a great parade in London in 1919 to mark the end of the war, and as part of the ceremonial the 15,000 troops marched past and saluted a tall wooden structure that had been erected in the middle of Whitehall: the forerunner of the present Cenotaph. Its austere design, by the distinguished architect Sir Edward Lutyens, depicted a tomb-chest resting on top of a rectangular pylon — a tall supportive structure diminishing as it rises, an architectural echo of the structure marking the gateway of an Egyptian temple. It was originally conceived as a temporary structure just for the ceremony. But its simplicity and dignity caught the mood of the moment: more than a million people visited the site within a week of the parade, and there was almost immediately a demand for it to be rebuilt in permanent form. Action quickly followed: Lutyens made hardly any changes, apart from adding a degree of curvature (entasis), and the erection of the Cenotaph as we know it, built of Portland stone, began in May 1920. It was unveiled by King George V on 11 November 1920, in a ceremony that was combined with the repatriation from the Western Front of the body of the Unknown Soldier, to be laid in honour in Westminster Abbey.

The word Cenotaph comes from the Greek and means 'empty tomb'. As a war memorial, it symbolises the absence of those who were killed, since most of the dead were buried close to where they fell, identified or unidentified, or were in some cases never recovered at all. Because, in its form, it is a cenotaph, an empty tomb, rather than some more usual memorial monument, it speaks of the individual loss even at the same time as its grandeur, austerity and location make it national. It was rededicated in 1946 to include the dead of the Second World War, and since then it has also come to memorialise the British dead of later conflicts, although, of course, when it was first erected, it commemorated the dead not just of Britain, but of the whole of the Empire, then at its peak. On each of the narrower sides, on the second tier below the tomb-chest, there is a laurel wreath. These echo the wreath, which we cannot see, on top of the tomb-chest. The only inscriptions are 'The Glorious Dead' and, in Roman numerals, the dates of the two World Wars, WW I above the wreath and WW II on the sides. On one long side the flags are the RAF Ensign, Union Flag and Red Ensign, and on the other the Blue Ensign, Union Flag and White Ensign. The absence of any Christian symbolism on the monument was criticised by some at the time, but it is the simple universality that gives the Cenotaph its power.

Novembers Quiz - Bible Locations: Can you place them?

Devices of the present day allow us access to masses of information without even leaving the comforts of home. Within very short times and simply by pressing keyboard buttons, search engines such as Google can provide details on all manner of facts, events, and much more. Think on 'Knowledge is power' [Scientia potentia est] usually attributed to Francis Bacon from his Meditationes Sacrae of 1597.

A more traditional, customised store of knowledge can be found on the shelves of one's bookcase. Cryptically, Sir Terry Pratchett considered that 'A store of good books is just a genteel Black Hole that knows how to read.' Accumulated down the years, I have volumes on science subjects, theology, geography, biographies, dictionaries, crosswords, crime thrillers and quizzes; essentially a selection which reflects my professional and personal interests.

Recently, it was by chance that I spotted A Bible Masterquiz compiled by Keith A Mason [Triangle SPCK, pub. 1984], a collection of five hundred questions to test Bible knowledge. This small hidden gem prompted me to choose Bible Locations as this month's subject. For assistance in answering, I have added book, chapter and verse to some of the forty questions, but have Bible and Google at the ready!
